Sir,

I have the honor to state that the half yearly inspection of the lunatics having fallen due — Hon: Justice A. Rungasamy Iyengar was, as usual, requested officially to convene a meeting of the official visitors for submission of the half yearly return of Criminal lunatics to Government.

Thereupon

2/ Thereupon the Chief Court has intimated that Mr. Justice A Rungasamy Iyengar is now the 2nd Judge and that since a District and Sessions Judge has been appointed at Bangalore, the notification of Government (No. 934/92 dated 17th July 1902) appointing the 3rd Judge of the Chief Court for the time being a visitor, ex-officio, of the Lunatic Asylum will have to be modified and that a reference may be made to Government to appoint Mr. S. K. Subbaroya Iyer District and Sessions Judge, Bangalore, instead.

The matter is therefore referred to Government for the needful being done with a request that an Official Visitor may be appointed at an early
